CAVEAT ACADEMIC SERVICES · COURSE CLUBS

Take an ASU course with friends

A course club is 3 to 7 students taking the same online ASU Universal Learner course on the same schedule, with a Caveat coach keeping the group on pace. Each student does their own work.

$225 per student, per course, for Caveat coaching

1
One parent organizes
Gathers 3 to 7 students and starts the club online.

2
Pick a course
Everyone enrolls in the same ASU course.

3
Meet weekly
One 60-minute group session with a Caveat coach.

4
Stay on pace
A shared calendar and a Friday report to each family.

Good first courses

ENG 101
First-year composition

PSY 101
Intro to psychology

SOC 101
Intro to sociology

COM 100
Intro to communication

MAT 114
Quantitative reasoning

ASU fees are separate and paid to ASU: $25 to start a course, plus $400 to add the credit only if the student wants it.

Every club includes

- One weekly 60-minute group session
- A shared pacing calendar for the whole term
- A Friday report to each family
- Coaching only: students do their own work

Start a club for your student

Scan the code or visit app.caveatacademic.com/club.html to set one up and invite other families.

caveatacademic.com · 602.677.6883
marcus@caveatacademic.com

Caveat Academic Services is independent coaching, not affiliated with Arizona State University. ASU sets its own fees and dates. Each college decides which credits it accepts.